T-ball teams play Saturday morning for an hour at the Brentwood Recreation fields. The time is split with the first 30 minutes dedicated to practicing individual skills and baseball fundamentals; the last 30 minutes is structured game play with Coaches continuing to instruct players during the game. The goal is to introduce the game of baseball, the basics of hitting, catching, throwing and playing together as a team. Possible weeknight practices are optional.

Farm Baseball is designed to transition kids from t- ball to baseball. It's an instructional, non-competitive league. Farm goals are to develop fundamental skills and an enjoyment of the game.
